

FAEMSE NEWS

August 2019

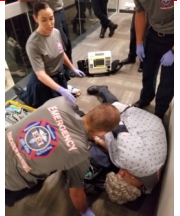

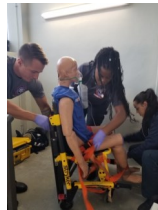

The Florida Association of Emergency Medical Services Educators (FAEMSE) is a member-oriented association organized to provide resources to individuals and organizations that will foster excellence in EMS education and training.

Institutional Spotlight, August 2019
 Emergency Education Institute visit at EEI.edu.
 Is your school doing great things and have photos to show it. Send to bmcgrath@semedicalacademy.com

Your 2018—2020 Board Members

President: Bill McGrath
President Elect: Felix Marquez
Past President: Jane Bedford
Secretary: Layne Hendrickson
Ex-Officio of the Board /EMSAC Rep: Jaime S Greene
Board Members at Large: Ann Brown, Tina Maloy, and Scott Kennedy
Executive Director: James Dinsch

Discuss Appendix G at the October Meeting!!

CoAEMSP will be in attendance at our October FAEMSE Meeting. If you have specific questions be sure to attend

FAEMSE Foundations scholarships were awarded at Clincon. Congratulations to the Next Meeting is in October in St Augustine!!

Need Help with accreditation or CoAEMSP? Reach out to our Board

Corporate Spotlight:

The Rescue Company 1 strives to provide high-level education in critical care emergency flight and transport medicine. Visit our sponsor at

What is FAEMSE doing for you?

- FAEMSE Board continues to work on the EMS wellness program
- FAEMSE is discussing accreditation options accepted by NREMT for testing. Stay Tuned
- Executive Director Jim Dinsch created a new upgraded website where members will have ability to exchange documents and download material and renew memberships individual or corporate
- Working diligently with Florida MQA to streamline licensure for our graduates
- Reviewing proposed/Draft 401 changes that may affect educators
- Meeting or exceeding the state plan goals assigned to the education committee